02

“Chanakya Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CCADR) CNLU is inviting well-researched submissions for its blog by way of a Call for Blogs.”

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Chanakya National Law University (CNLU) is an autonomous law university in Patna, Bihar, India. It was established in 2006 by the Government of Bihar as a public university dedicated to the field of Legal Education.

ABOUT THE CENTRE

The Chanakya Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CCADR) has been established at Chanakya National Law University, Patna, in the year 2021, with the objective to promote academic research on themes pertaining to the resolution of disputes.

With the establishment of this research centre, we aim to develop a congenial environment for students and researchers to further their interest in ADR, which enables skill development and helps us compete at the national and international levels. CCADR will strive to promote different dispute resolution methods, get involved in the policy framework related to ADR, and encourage law students to take up activities in the field of ADR by conducting competitions, workshops, and encouraging research.

ABOUT THE CCADR BLOG

The Chanakya Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CCADR) at Chanakya National Law University (CNLU) operates the CCADR Blog to publish the latest developments in Arbitration law and allied areas.

ELIGIBILITY

Submissions shall be open to students, academicians, and professionals.

THEME

The submission should pertain to the theme of “Interplay of Arbitration and Other Disciplines”.

Sub Themes:

- Interplay of Arbitration and Insolvency.
- Interplay of Arbitration and Data Protection Laws.
