CALL FOR RESEARCH VOLUNTEERS

Enfold Proactive Health Trust in collaboration with UNICEF-Bihar, Dept. of Social Welfare (GOB) and Child Rights Centre, CNLU Patna has undertaken a study on "Treatment of Girls involved in "Romantic" Cases under the Criminal Justice System and Juvenile Justice System - A Study based on the Experience of Girls in Child Care Institutions in Bihar."

As part of this Study, Judgments of Special Courts in 'consensual' cases under the POCSO Act will be analyzed.

We invite students (III Year and above) with proficiency in reading and writing in Hindi and English to apply as volunteers to assist the team that will analyse the judgments.

Students will also be involved in case law and other background research. The duration of the assignment will begin in the first week of November. Student volunteers will be acknowledged in the final report for their contribution and provided with a certificate.

The duration of the assignment will be through November and December 2020. Interested students are requested to send their CV and a brief writing sample to Centre Coordinator, Mrs Sneha at childrights@cnlu.ac.in
