About Child Rights Centre

The Child Rights Centre (CRC) is a specialized research centre of Chanakya National Law University, Patna. The Centre was established with a mission to improve access to justice for children and promote research, advanced learning and advocacy to strengthen child rights laws, policies and practices in Bihar. Child Rights Centre is established & running with technical support of UNICEF for effective implementation of children's laws in Bihar.

URJAA

Unlock Your Creativity, Utilize Your Potential

“Urjaa” is the national level dedicated competition of Child Rights Centre with the aim to bring out all the hidden talents of children & youngsters of the country. The ultimate aim of this event is to bring back the energy in everyone’s life. This competition of CRC is launched keeping in mind the sudden outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic & its dampening effect on human life, especially women & children. Hence, to overcome boredom, to brush up all the hidden talents & to deviate the innate energy in best positive direction, of all the youths & children here CRC is present with a bunch of creative competitions accompanied with exciting prizes, fulfilling its forever commitment towards the welfare & growth of children.
